How to use the directory

This directory contains information about, and direct links to, all the video and audio extracts taken from J. Krishnamurti's talks and discussions currently on the official YouTube Krishnamurti channel (youtube.com/c/KFoundation). Hundreds more extracts will be added in the future.

You can consult the directory on a computer, tablet or phone and perform a word search to get information about recordings on specific topics. For phones and tablets, you might need to download a PDF reader app which allows word search. On a computer you can use CTRL + F (Windows) or COMMAND + F (Mac) when the document is opened to activate the search function.

You can go directly to topics such as Attachment or Thinking together by just clicking on the link in the Table of Contents.

To watch or listen to the extract on YouTube you will need to click on the hyperlink provided. See examples below:

Since the channel's inception in 2006, Krishnamurti Foundation Trust has been solely responsible for managing the official international YouTube channel, producing its entire content of over 2,000 videos and audios from recordings carefully stored in our state-of-the-art archives at Brockwood Park, England. Every week, we continue to publish a previously-unreleased full-length audio recording, and a new topical video extract. All our content is offered free of charge and completely advert-free.

Our videos are translated by volunteers from all over the world. If you would like to help us with translating subtitles, please contact us at digital@kfoundation.org

For more information on the work and activities of the Foundation, including dozens of featured articles delving deeper into Krishnamurti's teachings, and information on Brockwood Park and the Krishnamurti Centre, please visit kfoundation.org
